

Oil Transportation Double Puzzle

Unscramble these words to learn about the different ways oil has been transported from wells to refineries in the last 150 years. Take the letters that appear in a  and unscramble them to find the answer to the bonus question.

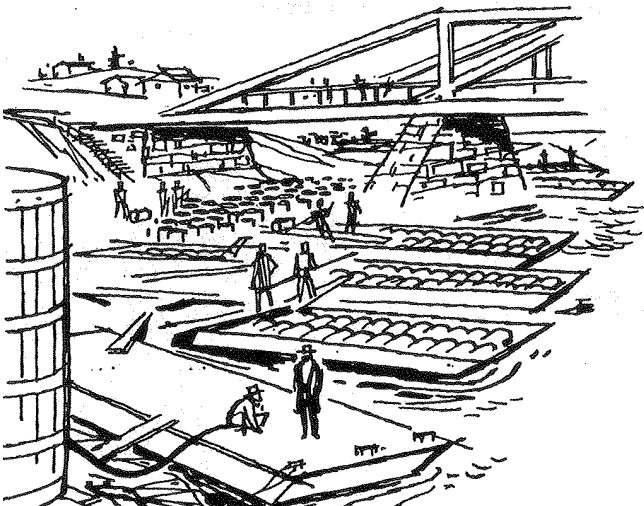

- Oil is hauled in 42-gallon  (RASBERL).
- (ESTASEMRT) were men hired to haul oil from well site to rivers or railroads.
- (SOHSER) were the animals that pulled oil tank wagons.
- Jacob J.  (VIRFADRTGEN) was a river-boat captain who became a giant in the transportation of crude oil.
- Wooden  (SARBGE) hauled barrels of oil down Oil Creek and the Allegheny River.
- The  (RESMODNE) Tank Car was the first railroad car equipped to haul oil.
- Samuel Van Syckel built the first  (LINPEEPI).
- (TEWTERDIA) was the first long-distance pipeline.

Bonus Question:

Pennsylvania oilmen used dams along the often shallow Oil Creek to create floods that would move barges filled with oil barrels down to the Allegheny River.

What was the name for this event?

_____
_____

Learn more at www.oil150.com